

Sebastião Salgado Biography

1944	Born on February 8, 1944 in Aimorés in the state of Minas Gerais, Brazil
1973	Began his career as a professional photographer in Paris
1982	W. Eugene Smith Award for Humanitarian Photography, USA (Ethiopian Famine)
1982	Award for continuing the project on the Latin American peasants, Ministry of Culture, France
1984	Prix de la Ville de Paris et Kodak, for a first photographic book, Other Americas , France
1985	World Press Photo Award, Holland
1988	Photographic Journalist of the Year by the International Center of Photography, USA
1989	Erna and Victor Hasselblad Award, for life achievement, Sweden
1991	World Press Photo Award winner, Oskar Barnack individual Award
1993	Featured in People Magazine
1993	Prize for the Best Photography Book of the Year, for Workers , Arles International Festival, France
1998	Founded Instituto Terra to promote reforestation and environmental education
2001	Appointed a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador

Literature

2007	Africa , Taschen
2005	An Uncertain Grace , Aperture
2004	Genesis , Taschen
2000	Migrations: Humanity in Transition , Aperture
2000	The Children , Aperture
1997	Terra: Struggle of the Landless , Phaidon
1992	Workers: An Archaeology of the Industrial Age , Aperture
1988	Sahel: The End of the Road , University of California Press
1986	Other Americas , Pantheon
1986	Sahel: Man in Distress , Aperture